When Ordering CONCERN, Do Remember . . .

1. Order early. It takes four to six weeks for a subscription (new or renewed) to be processed. By renewing early, you will avoid receiving unnecessary renewal notices. And, given the realities of the U.S. postal service, you need to allow two to three weeks for delivery of quantity orders. It helps to indicate the date on which they are needed.

2. Review order information for each item listed in the Resources section of the magazine before ordering. Most items listed there are to be ordered from offices other than CONCERN.

3. Check carefully before sealing your order envelope. Correct amount of money enclosed? Check made payable to CONCERN? Signed? Carbon copy of order kept for your own records?

Thanks for helping us help you!
